PLAINTIFF'S FIRST SET OF INTERROGATORIES, NOS. 1-9

Plaintiff's Motion to Compel Further Answers to Plaintiff's First Set of Interrogatories to Defendant American Airlines came on for hearing herein on Tuesday, June 22, 2010, at 11:00 a.m., before this Court; therein appearing Louis S. 1 However, the parties had been unable to resolve whether further answers, except as agreed
2 upon, should be provided regarding non-defendant employees.

3 The Court, having heard argument, reviewed the matter and for good cause orders as 4 follows:

5 1. Defendant American Airlines will provide further answers to Interrogatories 1-9 as
6 the interrogatory may call for the identify of such witness who is or was an employee of American
7 Airlines as the parties had agreed prior to the hearing.

8 2. Defendant American Airlines does not have to further answer Interrogatories 1-9 as 9 to other non-employee witnesses.

10 3. Defendant American Airlines is to answer the following Interrogatory as composed
11 by the Court:

12 Please state the name, address and telephone number of each and every passenger and/or 13 crew member who you contend saw the bottle in any context prior to it hitting plaintiff on the 14 head, and who you contend saw plaintiff's husband open the subject bin.
